Religious Education News...Attention Parents:

All classes will be offered through ZOOM. There are at least 13 free internet hotspots throughout the Eastern Shore.

LAST CALL: We are asking all parents who want a child to participate in religious education, either for Sacrament Preparation or to study Church Doctrine, to call the parish office (331-2040) and pre-register no later AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. From that information we can set up classes. Classes are not limited to Sundays.

You will be contacted to discuss a good time for your child to participate and to arrange a time to complete the registration form.

The Diocese of Richmond Bicentennial coffee table books are available for pre-ordering. There is a book in the rear of the church for you to look at and an order sheet. The books are $50.00 each and celebrate the 200 years of our diocese.

Blessing of the Pets

On Saturday, October 3rd our Blessing of the Pets will take place at 11:00 a.m. outside the Church. Masks are required for humans, pets are exempt.

Healing Prayer

LORD, You invite all who are burdened to come to You. Allow Your healing hand to heal me. Touch my soul with Your compassion for others. Touch my heart with Your courage and infinite love for all. Touch my mind with Your wisdom, that my mouth may always proclaim Your praise. Teach me to reach out to You in my need and help me to lead others to You by my example. Most loving Heart of Jesus, bring me health in body and spirit that I may serve You with all my strength. Touch gently this life which You have created, now and forever. Amen

Dear Padre,

My nephew has a chronic illness. My father is saving money to send to him so he can send it to a faith healer my dad has seen on TV. What can I say to my dad to convince him this is a bad idea?

The Catholic Church teaches that “those who dwell in heaven” regularly intercede with God on our behalf (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 956), and those intercessions include healings.

But living people with the power to instantly heal physical and mental ailments are rare. Some “healers” have accomplices who fake illness or disability and are then “cured” for the sole purpose of getting people to give money to the “healer.” We should be very skeptical about these claims, because scam artists understand how easy it is to take advantage of people who are desperate for relief of pain or for the cure of a chronic or terminal illness.

One thing is certain: healing ultimately comes from God. Anyone who claims he or she is the healer and not simply God’s instrument is unquestionably a fraud.

Suggest to your dad that he talk to his priest before he sends any money to the “healer.” The best way for him to help his grandson is to pray for him and donate any money he has saved to an organization that does research into the condition. That way, your father will be helping everyone with the condition—not just your nephew.

Jesus wants to make us contemplate the gaze of that landowner: the gaze with which he looks upon each of the laborers searching for work and calls them to go to his vineyard....It is a gaze which calls, invites one to get up and begin a journey because he wants life for each of us.
